National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Inc., Chattanooga Chapter

Presents

Mardi Gras Ball

The National Coalition of 100 Black Women Inc., Chattanooga Chapter will host a Mardi Gras Ball on Friday February 16th. The black tie event, which will begin at 9:00 p.m., will be held in the Imperial Ballroom of the Chattanooga Choo Choo.

“We are very excited about the upcoming fundraising event”, states Beverly McKeldin, chairperson for the Mardi Gras Ball. “We hope that the community will continue to support us as we raise funds that allow us to re-invest in our local community.”

Tickets for the Mardi Gras Ball are $30.00 and can be purchased in advance from any NCBW member or by calling 423-698-0029. Proceeds from this event help support mentoring programs, scholarships and community outreach projects conducted by the chapter throughout the year.

Founded in 1981, the National Coalition of 100 Black Women is a nonprofit 501(c) (4) organization, has approximately 7,500 members in 62 chapters in 25 states and the District of Columbia, with organizing groups in St. Thomas (West Indies); London, England; York (PA); Boston (MA); and Omaha (NE). The Chattanooga Chapter was organized in October of 1994 and advocates on behalf of women of color through national and local actions and strategic alliances that promote its national and international agendas on leadership development and on gender equity in health, education, and economic development.
